Re: The Elase Project, Inc.

Dear Keith:

Congratulations! The IRS approved the application for recognition of exemption on August 10, 2018. A copy of the determination letter is enclosed. The Elase Project, Inc. is exempt from federal income tax as a 501(c)(3) charitable organization. This means donations made to the corporation dating back to the date of formation (March 8, 2017) are tax deductible.

More good news! The IRS classified the corporation as a public charity. The corporation must file an annual information tax return or notice. If the corporation fails to file the required return or notice, the corporation's exempt status may be revoked.

As discussed in the past, you are responsible for future state and federal corporate and tax filings and compliance with corporate formalities.

This concludes the services we were engaged to provide in connection with the organization of the Corporation. Our office will not provide legal services to the Corporation in the future.

Best wishes,

Randy

Dear Applicant:

We're pleased to tell you we determined you're exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3). Donors can deduct contributions they make to you under IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under Section 2055, 2106, or 2522. This letter could help resolve questions on your exempt status. Please keep it for your records.

Organizations exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3) are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined you're a public charity under the IRC Section listed at the top of this letter.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that you're required to file Form 990/990-EZ/990-N, our records show you're required to file an annual information return (Form 990 or Form 990-EZ) or electronic notice (Form 990-N, the e-Postcard). If you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

For important information about your responsibilities as a tax-exempt organization, go to www.irs.gov/charities. Enter "4221-PC" in the search bar to view Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, which describes your recordkeeping, reporting, and disclosure requirements.
